From the Churches--Revival Meetings.

MUCH SICK AND MANY DEATH

Briefs Mentioned

Sunday, 10th instant, was a balmy and spring-like day; gents without their over-coats and ladies without their wrappers; all looking tidy and handsome, were out in full.

Our churches presented a beautiful aspect in many instances of spring in all of its glory.

The congregation of the Second Baptist Church at 11:30 a m heard a most excellent sermon delivered by Rev. J. W. Kirby. At 3 p m, the pastor, Rev. Z. D. Lewis, B. D., administered the Lord's supper. The services were equal to any on former occasions. All seemed to enjoy the rich, holy service as becometh true Christians.

The 5th Baptist Church at 11:30 was led in services by Rev. Jackson, of Texas. At 3 p m, Rev. H. Powell preached a powerful and logical sermon on "True citizenship of Earth and Heaven." It was a very profound dis-course, showing deep thought and course, showing deep thought and clear conception of all the able divines which was explained to a large congregation, who listened with appreciative

Monday night, Rev. Jackson preached on "The Glorious Gospel." The brother was peculiarly interesting in his own way, showing great lung power.

At this church, the revival meetings are now being conducted by Rev. S. L. Johnson, the great revivalist, who arrived in the city lest Monday and in are on the increase and showing mark ed improvement in all the depart ments of the work.

The River View Baptist Church,
Rev. George E. Johnson and people show increased interest in all their work. At this church, just out side of the city limits, Mr. S. L. Moore has opened a day school with a large numer of pupils that cannot be accommo dated in the public schools.

The Shophill Mission school, Rev John Ellis, superintendent is on the increase, also a large number worship during the day and hear able sermons

On last Tuesday evening, 8 pm, there was a marriage at Kandolph Baptist Church (white), and after the couple entered the hack, about fifty young men and boys with tin pans sticks, etc., made the most miserable noise we have heard for many a day. The R N. Smith Company is succeed ing nicely. Although having been organized only five months, it has built up a thriving trade and sel slarge quantities of wood, coal, flour, breadstuff, hay, etc.

It buys two and three hundred tons at a time and is most liberally patron ized. It is doing business on its own property. Mr. Zacharias Henderson is salesman, while those efficient gentlemen, Messrs. Harris Barrett and F. D Banks look after the accounts and management.

The Building and Loan Association of which Rev. R. Spiller is president is prospering very nicely. It has paid out $108,000 in that locality since a substantial benefit to the people.

Rev. R. Spiller, D. D., has one of the finest libraries in the state.

Rev. George E. Ried is succeeding nicely as principal of Spiller Academy. Dr. W. E. Atkins, son in law of Rev. Dr. Binga, has won favor here and i succeeding in his practice.
